Description

W, Fawcett A.K.A Robert Cleminson.

English sporting painter from the late 19th century. Cleminson was best known for his sporting and animal scenes, often in Scotland.

This is an outstanding example of one such piece. 'The Days Bag'

English setters with a pony awaiting the return of the Gillie after a long days shooting on the Moors or Highlands of Scotland.

The piece has been cleaned and re-framed in the UK and is in excellent condition.
