Description

late 19th-century Irish school portrait of a seated man smoking a pipe in a barn interior.

A very well-painted and skillfully composed portrait of a working man.

Painted circa 1890-1900, this is an honest depiction of a man resting during what I'm sure is a hard day's work.

Signed top right the painting is an excellent piece of history, both in how the man is painted and also the scene.

Framed in a beautiful antique frame.
